THE ART MUSEUM · PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

The Art Museum, a section of the Department of Art and Archaeology of Princeton University, is intended to form a visible epitome of the history of art from earliest times to the present, that is, to cover the ground of the teaching by the Department.

The Museum is open daily from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., Monday through Saturday; Sundays from 2 to 5 P.M.; it is closed Thanksgiving Day, December 24-25, 31, January 1, Easter weekend, and from July 1 to September 10.

RECORD

The Record is published twice yearly. There is a nominal subscription fee of $1.00 a year, but there is no charge to members of the Friends of the Museum. Inquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Miss Jones, except for those concerning exchange of publications which should be sent to: Preparations Department, University Library, Princeton, New Jersey.

THE FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUM

The Friends of the Museum was organized in the Spring of 1950 to promote a wider interest in The Art Museum among alumni and friends, among the University and other communities; to enlarge the purchasing funds of the Museum in order to round out the collections with objects of quality useful in the teaching of the Department as well as for the enjoyment of the visiting public; to attract gifts of museum quality and to assist in the effort to obtain eventually a new building so very much needed for the adequate display of collections. Special lectures and exhibitions are arranged for the Friends. Annual memberships begin at five dollars. Inquiries may be addressed to any member of the Staff.
